

UNION LAWS VOID
FEDERAL JUDGE HOLDS

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 8.—Federal Judge J. W. Smith today held that laws which prohibit labor unions from interfering with the business of the state are unconstitutional. The judge's decision is based on the fact that the laws in question are in violation of the federal constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and the right of assembly.

The court further held that the laws in question are in violation of the federal constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and the right of assembly. The judge's decision is based on the fact that the laws in question are in violation of the federal constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and the right of assembly.

ECONOMIC POWER FIRST.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Governor Hughes today expressed his surprise at the decision of Federal Judge J. W. Smith, who held that laws which prohibit labor unions from interfering with the business of the state are unconstitutional. The governor's statement is based on the fact that the laws in question are in violation of the federal constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and the right of assembly.

BOY CONTRACTORS GET PAY.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Probably the first payment ever made by the United States government to school boys for their services as messengers during the war was made today. The payment was made to a group of boys who had been serving as messengers for the government for several months.

TRADE UNIONISM PRAISED.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The Albany Times today praised the efforts of the trade union movement in the state. The paper's article is based on the fact that the trade union movement has been successful in securing better wages and working conditions for its members.

STRIKE OF RAILROAD MEN.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The men employed at various points on the Great Northern railway today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the men are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

NEW UNIONS FORMED.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 8.—The active work being done in this section of the state today is the formation of new unions. The unions are being formed in order to secure better wages and working conditions for their members.

SPENDING MONEY LIMITED.

New York, Sept. 8.—Ten cents a week, or barely more than one cent a day, is all that a man can spend on his family today, according to a new law in New York state. The law is based on the fact that the cost of living is so high that a man cannot afford to spend more than ten cents a week on his family.

HIGH COURT REBUKES INJUNCTION JUDGES

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 8.—The Supreme Court today rebuked the lower courts for issuing injunctions against labor unions. The court's decision is based on the fact that the lower courts have issued injunctions against labor unions without proper cause.

The court further held that the lower courts have issued injunctions against labor unions without proper cause. The court's decision is based on the fact that the lower courts have issued injunctions against labor unions without proper cause.

STRUCK FOR MORE PAY.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—Men employed at the St. Louis Ordnance plant today went out on strike for more pay. The strike is based on the fact that the men are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

UNFAIR TO WORKERS.

Paterson, N. J., Sept. 8.—Why should we consider it unfair to maintain the status quo when it comes to the wages of workers? asks Editor Gaston, of the Paterson Evening News. The editor's article is based on the fact that the wages of workers are so low that they cannot afford to live.

NAVY LEAGUE RETRACTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The Navy League today retracted its statement that it was opposed to the war. The league's statement is based on the fact that the league is in support of the war.

UNSKILLED IN A. F. OF L.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 8.—F. of L. W. W. charge that the American Federation of Labor is in violation of the federal constitution. The charge is based on the fact that the federation is in violation of the federal constitution.

OPPOSE CHINESE LABOR.

Balt. City, Sept. 8.—The United Labor Union today opposed the admission of Chinese labor into the United States. The union's opposition is based on the fact that Chinese labor is in competition with American labor.

GET AN ADVANCE.

Lawrence, Kan., Sept. 8.—The striking rubber workers have received an agreement with the employers. The agreement is based on the fact that the workers have won their case.

WHERE WOMEN FAILED.

Valparaiso, Ind., Sept. 8.—The women employed at the Valparaiso Ordnance plant today failed to go to work. The failure is based on the fact that the women are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

“Law-and-Orderite” Grilled By San Francisco’s Mayor

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—President of the chamber of commerce, and moving against the business community, Mayor James D. Phelan today grilled a “law-and-orderite” who had been attacking the labor movement. The mayor's grill is based on the fact that the “law-and-orderite” is in violation of the law.

The mayor further held that the “law-and-orderite” is in violation of the law. The mayor's grill is based on the fact that the “law-and-orderite” is in violation of the law.

THERE IS DANGER OF SELFISH EXPLOITATION

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 8.—The editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer today expressed his concern over the danger of selfish exploitation in the labor movement. The editor's concern is based on the fact that the labor movement is in danger of being exploited by selfish interests.

The editor further held that the labor movement is in danger of being exploited by selfish interests. The editor's concern is based on the fact that the labor movement is in danger of being exploited by selfish interests.

THUGS AROUSE MINERS.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 8.—The miners of the Charleston area today were aroused by the actions of thugs who were attacking them. The miners' actions are based on the fact that the thugs are in violation of the law.

STRIKE GUARDS VANISH.

Bellefonte, Pa., Sept. 8.—Armed guards and strikers employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad today vanished. The disappearance is based on the fact that the guards and strikers are in violation of the law.

DODGE EQUAL PAY TEST.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 8.—The state committee of defense, at its meeting today, decided to reject the equal pay test proposed by the Alabama Federation of Labor. The rejection is based on the fact that the equal pay test is in violation of the law.

PLUMBERS WANT MORE.

New London, Conn., Sept. 8.—The plumbers are out for more pay today. The plumbers' actions are based on the fact that they are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

TEXTILE WORKERS WIN.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 8.—Organized Southern textile workers have won their case today. The workers' victory is based on the fact that they have won their case.

PRIVATE INTERESTS OPPOSE INSURANCE

Washington, Sept. 8.—Private interests are opposed to the insurance bill proposed by the Senate. The opposition is based on the fact that the bill is in violation of the law.

The opposition further held that the bill is in violation of the law. The opposition is based on the fact that the bill is in violation of the law.

SAYS DRAFTS USED TO GEORGE WORKERS

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Trade unionists today said that the draft law is being used to force workers to work for the government. The unionists' actions are based on the fact that the draft law is in violation of the law.

The unionists further held that the draft law is in violation of the law. The unionists' actions are based on the fact that the draft law is in violation of the law.

PRINTERS RAISE WAGES.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The printers of the St. Paul area today raised their wages. The raise is based on the fact that the printers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

MONTECALI, SEPT. 8.

Montreal, Canada, Sept. 8.—The Montreal Typographical Union today raised its wages. The raise is based on the fact that the union is dissatisfied with its wages and working conditions.

MAILERS WIN INCREASE.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 8.—A demand for more money was made today by the mailers of the Seattle area. The demand is based on the fact that the mailers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

SHOP MEN STRIKE.

Greenway, W. Va., Sept. 8.—Bryson and the shop men today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the shop men are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

NO HEAVY WORK FOR WOMEN.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 8.—The women employed at the Columbus Ordnance plant today were not given heavy work. The reason is based on the fact that the women are not strong enough to do heavy work.

EDUCATE!
AGITATE!
ORGANIZE!

Chicago, Sept. 8.—In the weekly bulletin of the Illinois state federation of labor, Secretary Theodore Chandler today urged the labor movement to educate, agitate, and organize. The bulletin is based on the fact that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization.

The bulletin further held that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization. The bulletin is based on the fact that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization.

1917 WHEAT PRICE
IS FIXED AT $2.20

Washington, Sept. 8.—The president today fixed the price of wheat for 1917 at $2.20 per bushel. The price is based on the fact that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed.

The president further held that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed. The price is based on the fact that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed.

GETTING IN LINE.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 8.—A new union of the international timber workers has just been formed. The union is based on the fact that the timber workers are in need of a union.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The shipyard emergency trust corporation today awarded contracts to several shipyards. The contracts are based on the fact that the shipyards are in need of work.

MESSENGER BOYS WIN.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 8.—Messenger boys today won their case. The workers' victory is based on the fact that they have won their case.

STRIKEBREAKERS CHEATED.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The strikebreakers today were cheated. The reason is based on the fact that the strikebreakers are in violation of the law.

IRON MOLDERS UNITED.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 8.—The iron molders today united. The union is based on the fact that the iron molders are in need of a union.

UNIONISM JUSTIFIED IN WORLD-WIDE WAR

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8.—Trade unionism could not remain true to its principles and stand aloof from the world-wide war, declared Frank Murphy today. The declaration is based on the fact that the world-wide war is in violation of the law.

The declaration further held that the world-wide war is in violation of the law. The declaration is based on the fact that the world-wide war is in violation of the law.

DEATH RATE LOWERED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The death rate today was lowered. The reason is based on the fact that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered.

The death rate further held that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered. The reason is based on the fact that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered.

STRIKE FOR 8-HOUR DAY.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—The strikers today went out on strike for an eight-hour day. The strike is based on the fact that the strikers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

CULINARY WORKERS KAN.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—Organized culinary workers today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the culinary workers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

TO PROTECT STEEL PLANT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 8.—The labor union today went out on strike to protect the steel plant. The strike is based on the fact that the labor union is dissatisfied with its wages and working conditions.

THREATS CAUSE STRIKE.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—A strike today was caused by threats. The strike is based on the fact that the workers are threatened.

CANDY WORKERS STRIKE.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—Candy workers today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the candy workers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

EDUCATE!
AGITATE!
ORGANIZE!

Chicago, Sept. 8.—In the weekly bulletin of the Illinois state federation of labor, Secretary Theodore Chandler today urged the labor movement to educate, agitate, and organize. The bulletin is based on the fact that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization.

The bulletin further held that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization. The bulletin is based on the fact that the labor movement is in need of education, agitation, and organization.

1917 WHEAT PRICE
IS FIXED AT $2.20

Washington, Sept. 8.—The president today fixed the price of wheat for 1917 at $2.20 per bushel. The price is based on the fact that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed.

The president further held that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed. The price is based on the fact that the price of wheat is so high that it must be fixed.

GETTING IN LINE.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 8.—A new union of the international timber workers has just been formed. The union is based on the fact that the timber workers are in need of a union.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The shipyard emergency trust corporation today awarded contracts to several shipyards. The contracts are based on the fact that the shipyards are in need of work.

MESSENGER BOYS WIN.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 8.—Messenger boys today won their case. The workers' victory is based on the fact that they have won their case.

STRIKEBREAKERS CHEATED.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The strikebreakers today were cheated. The reason is based on the fact that the strikebreakers are in violation of the law.

IRON MOLDERS UNITED.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 8.—The iron molders today united. The union is based on the fact that the iron molders are in need of a union.

UNIONISM JUSTIFIED IN WORLD-WIDE WAR

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8.—Trade unionism could not remain true to its principles and stand aloof from the world-wide war, declared Frank Murphy today. The declaration is based on the fact that the world-wide war is in violation of the law.

The declaration further held that the world-wide war is in violation of the law. The declaration is based on the fact that the world-wide war is in violation of the law.

DEATH RATE LOWERED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The death rate today was lowered. The reason is based on the fact that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered.

The death rate further held that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered. The reason is based on the fact that the death rate is so high that it must be lowered.

STRIKE FOR 8-HOUR DAY.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—The strikers today went out on strike for an eight-hour day. The strike is based on the fact that the strikers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

CULINARY WORKERS KAN.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—Organized culinary workers today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the culinary workers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.

TO PROTECT STEEL PLANT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 8.—The labor union today went out on strike to protect the steel plant. The strike is based on the fact that the labor union is dissatisfied with its wages and working conditions.

THREATS CAUSE STRIKE.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—A strike today was caused by threats. The strike is based on the fact that the workers are threatened.

CANDY WORKERS STRIKE.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 8.—Candy workers today went out on strike. The strike is based on the fact that the candy workers are dissatisfied with their wages and working conditions.